THE BEGINNING OF NEW FRIENDSHIPS

Monica Silva (Brazil)

I am not sure if San Lorenzo is the greatest. All I know, is that it was a great experience to be part of the Rebel Pride. Thanks to all those people in football, soccer, the Yearbook staff, the photography class and the other classes and all the other people at SL who were such good friends to me. Back in Holland, on wooden shoes between tulips, windmills and Heineken beer, I will remember you all as a buncha crazy weirdos who always looked for having a good time. I had many good times with you here and I especially wanted to thank the Brawley family and Youth for Understanding who made things so convenient for me. And if you ever visit Holland, you'll see that you're not the only weirdos on the globe.

Good luck to all of you in the future, and keep smiling; life is fun!

Kees "Case" Biekart

Helio Almeida (Brazil)

I'd like to say a big "thank you" to the people at San Lorenzo High and especially to my counselor Mrs. Thomas who was so nice to me—also my teachers and the Perettis, my host family, who had me for the full year as a real member of their family.

San Lorenzo High is a really neat school with a lot of activities and nice kids. I'm sorry I didn't join the soccer team even if I'm from Greece, but I thought I'd like better to play tennis. My favorite class is Photo. I also want to say a big thank you to my friends and especially to Greg, Mike, and John, who were so close to me. Well, I guess that's all! Thank you everybody!

Nico Raris

Johan Bill

First of all, I want to thank everybody in San Lorenzo High for a great year. The year has really been different for me. It has given me a lot of new friends, experiences and a good time. I enjoyed the school maybe because it was something new, but I think the way people treated me was a main reason why I liked it. I must mention the San Lorenzo soccer team, which I played on, under Coach Thompson and Coach Goard. It was well-organized with a lot of friendship. It was kind of neat to play soccer here in January, when my friends in Sweden went skiing. One thing I appreciated was when Mr. Rhodes took the other foreign exchange students and myself to Yosemite National Park for a weekend. That's just one example of many, in which people took their time and showed me something. I also want to thank the Promes family who opened their home for me and made me feel like a member of the family.

I hope I can come back to California someday. I sure will if I can.

Johan Bill
Sweden

We're going to miss the times we've shared together. We cherish the friendships we have made through these four years. Those memories of friends will stay with us when years and miles separate our hands, but they will never separate our thoughts.

There have been many challenges and disappointments since our freshman year. As seniors we have realized that high school is frustrating, but also rewarding. We have grown in spirit and mind.

Senior Memories: . . . first day butterflies . . . . Freshman Fifties . . . . more power as sophomores . . . . challenges behind the wheel . . . . Sophomore Superstars . . . . class rings . . . . Junior G.I.'s . . . Junior Prom at H'[illegible] Lordship's . . . VICTORY in Powder Puff . . . Senior Pictures . . . Senior Picnic . . . . Senior Ball at [illegible]nol Country Club . . . . announcements . . . . applying for scholarships . . . . 2ND VICTORY in Powder Puff . . . . Star Trek-Space Age . . . . Senior Breakfast . . . . Disneyland . . . . football games . . . . basketball games . . . . fantastic parties . . . . dances . . . . Rebello . . . . concerts . . . . rallies . . . . assemblies.

Out of all these, the memory of Graduation will linger on . . . . .

THE NEW BEGINNING

Every day of our life is a new beginning. The past is over; the future is life itself.

Today, more than ever before, the future holds our attention. The only constant thing in our lives is change. The world looks to you, the youth, for a new beginning of life, freedom and peace. Your goals and aspirations are important to all of us.

This year marks a change or a new beginning for San Lorenzo High School. It has been the year of educational planning; a year of student participation; a year of new beginnings.

We can all make a new beginning for ourselves. We can set our own goals and open ourselves to greater feelings and expectations. Our accomplishments are only limited by our dreams and expectations. You can accomplish whatever you set out to do.

COUNSELORS PROVIDE GUIDANCE AND ADJUSTMENT

Our counselors—Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Runge, Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Thomas—helped us a great deal throughout the school year. At the beginning of the fall semester the counselors were busily scheduling and rescheduling student programs to provide satisfaction for the entire student body. Once the school year began, they helped us to adjust to our new classes and they were there to help us over the "rough spots."

Mrs. Buretta helped us to schedule counseling appointments and kept updated program cards for the counselors. Mrs. Barker recorded our permanent grades and provided seniors with important college transcripts.

In the spring the counselors again helped us to establish a workable program for next year . . . and another new beginning.

Mrs. Harris studies the master schedule.

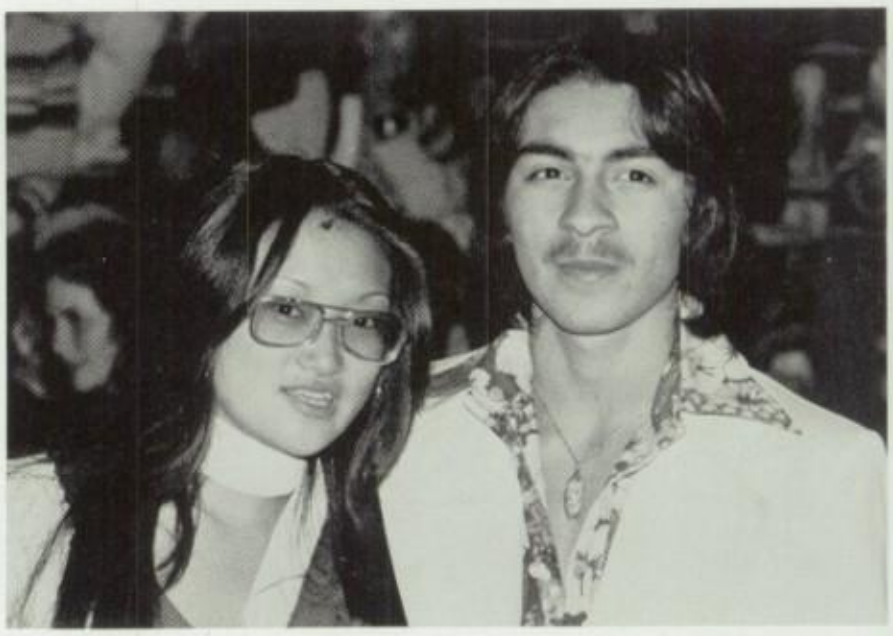
ACTIVITIES



The Miss Southern Belle contest was very competitive. All of the candidates campaigned for two weeks with posters and buttons; and on Wednesday, September 30, all nine candidates used their imagination and dressed humorously.

Their eagerness to become school queen made their performance in the talent show on Thursday extremely original.

Voting was on Friday, Oct. 1. The suspense was held until half-time of the Saturday night football game, when Roxanne Rodrigues was crowned MISS SOUTHERN BELLE. Her 1st attendant was Karin Tier, and 2nd attendant was Juanita Medinas.

The varsity cheerleaders, Eliza Rodrigues (Head), Donna Jackson, Margo Alexander, Debbie Cossetto and Teri Weiman, received a trophy award for 3rd place, while the varsity song-girls, headed by Lisa Yoshino, placed fourth in their routine. Both groups gave outstanding performances in competition with nineteen other schools, and the Cheerleaders gave San Lorenzo their first victory in four years!

For the second year in a row San Lorenzo High School won a second place trophy for school spirit!

FOOTBALL BANQUET DEBUTS!

The varsity football season came to a formal close with a banquet at Neptune's Galleon in Alameda. The varsity team met to celebrate their participation in another football season. All the players, their parents, and everyone who had been involved in the varsity team were present and enjoyed a steak dinner.

Highlighting the evening was the announcement of special awards: Brian Coelho, wing back, received the MVP award for the Blue Max. Noseguard Danny Vickers earned the MVP award for the Red Barons. Most Improved Player was Brian Gardiner and Greg Perretti received recognition for being selected for the HAAL All-League team. Coaches gave special individual recognition to each member of the team, and also to those who made second team All-League. Another surprise was a movie that included highlights of the 1976 season.

SENIORS SHINE!

The Powder Puff football game was held on Friday, December 10. The game was won convincingly by the undefeated class of '77 by a final score of 36-12.

The game was a fund raiser for the Christmas Canned Food Drive with an admission charge of 25 cents or a can of food. All in all, the Powder Puff game was a very successful event; it provided fun and excitement for both the participants and spectators. The crowd especially enjoyed the antics of the Junior and Senior boys who were cheerleaders.

The Senior touchdowns were scored by Robin Araujo, Rhonda Fazio and Lisa Yoshino. The scorers for the Juniors were Beth Ogelvie and Sheila Sablan. Both Junior and Senior defenses did their part.

SPACE AGE ROYALTY

Friday night, February 18, at 9:45 proved to be the "big moment" for Alex Ramirez and Sally Schultz. They received the honor of being crowned Space Age King and Queen.

During Spirit Week, Sally and Alex and the other candidates, Kyle Troche, Mary Miranda and Kathy Santiago, collected donations throughout the day. The money gathered went to the handicapped children at Sunset Elementary School. It helped to pay their way to camp.

It was the first time there had been a King and Queen of Spirit Week. Together, the candidates collected $249. Everyone involved did a fantastic job.

Freshman Freakoids Invade SLz!

The Freshman Freakoids jumped right into Spirit Week. They won the "Best Skit" trophy and received the highest score for their float. The Class of '80 was certainly a well-organized class. With the help of a class officer and cheerleader, Teresa Lara, the Freakoids took an impressive second place. Their skit was very surprising for freshmen, since this was their first try at Spirit Week. Outstanding performances were given by Arnie Goodpasture, who played the Head Freakoid, and by Johnny Weiman, who also played a Freakoid. The class spirit was led by their impressive cheerleaders: Phyllis Fogg (Head), Cindy Metzinger, Dee Cosetto, Kim Tanisawa, Teresa Lara, and Roseann Ryan.

The Class of '79 chose a sparkling nickname for Spirit Week; they called themselves the Sophomore Shining Stars. Their colors were spacey silver and outerspace orange. Their president, Bonnie Serrano, was in charge of and organized their Spirit Week. The class spirit was promoted by six enthusiastic cheerleaders: Cherisse Moore (head), Carrie Moore, Kelly Hudson, Cindy Amaral, Patti Lombardi, and Donna Bridges. The Sophomore class spent many hours painting posters for games, A-hall and patio decorations, and rehearsing their skit. At the end of Spirit Week they were awarded the "Best Game Decorations" trophy and the "Canned Food Drive" trophy. Many Sophomore students wore t-shirts which were in orange with silver writing, which read "Class of '79!" The Sophomores produced good game attendance and good rally participation throughout an enjoyable week.

Spirit Week was very competitive. All four classes were really spirited. The winning class, the Junior Jetsons, were very excited and very spirited. They ended up with trophies for "Best Overall Spirit," "Best Game Attendance," "Best Rallies," "Best Patio Decorations," "Best A Hall Decorations" and "Best Cheerleaders."

The cheerleaders for the class of '78 were Mavia Hopkins, Laura Leon, Sue Milton, Jill Newton, Cathy Powell, Sheila Sablan, Liz Sanchez and Denise Williams. Junior Spirit Week was headed by Marian Medina, with Janice Souza as co-president. The class, as one Jetson family, participated and worked together to bring out the spirit needed to win. The Junior class advisors were Mrs. Hunt, Miss Lockwood, and Mr. Potts. Though the class worked on its own, the advisors gave plenty of moral support!!! Jetsons not only showed their spirit at school during the week, but also got together at games to win the battle cries. The Junior Jetsons hope to go on to keep their spirit to clinch Spirit Week in their senior year. GREAT GOING JUNIORS!!!

SENIORS SHOW ENTERPRISE

The Senior Startreks did not come in first place this year, but they did give it a good try. They took the "Best Fund Raising" trophy for the second year in a row.

The Senior Startreks' colors were yellow and black and the Startrek cheerleaders, headed by Brenda Alter, got rowdy and led the senior crowd in cheers. The other Startrek cheerleaders were Ann Kawahara, Julie Rivas, Kathy Gault and Judy Ganzer.

The senior skit was an imitation of the "Gong Show" with Farrah Fawcett-Majors (Teri Weiman), Dorothy Hamill (Debbie Cosetto) and Karl Malden (Cindy Barron) as the panelists. Mike Ozenghar, Rich Tomlinson and Dean Warkentin portrayed members of the Starship Enterprise.

The Startreks won all but two of the noontime activities. ("We know which class had all the muscles." Too bad they left their lungs at home!) The seniors enjoyed Spirit Week, and gave it a good try.

SPACE SPIRIT UNITES . . .

The Space Age Era invaded our school the week of Feb. 15-18. Each class joined with spirit and used its imagination to develop the class theme. Wednesday was "Dress in Spage Age Day." There were Freakoids, Shining Stars, Jetsons, and the crew from the Starship Enterprise walking around. Everyone took part in noon-time games, skits, rallies, and we can't forget the space floats on Friday.

Friday night the annual Spirit Week Dance featured LEFT LANE. At the closing of the dance, the classes gathered to hear the results of Spirit Week. The junior class received the "Overall Spirit" trophy. The week was different and fun for all.

MOONLIGHT MIRAGE

Sunol Valley Country Club was the site for the Junior-Senior Ball. On March 5 between 9 p.m. and 2 a.m., cpuples arrived dressed in long formals and tuxedoes. They danced to the fantastic sounds of "Self-Expression". The theme was "Moonlight Mirage" which fit the quiet, crisp, clear, full-moon night that everyone enjoyed.

Special thanks to Gayle Glayor, Jody Gonsalves and Mr. Hilbert for all their work to make the Winter Ball a smashing success.

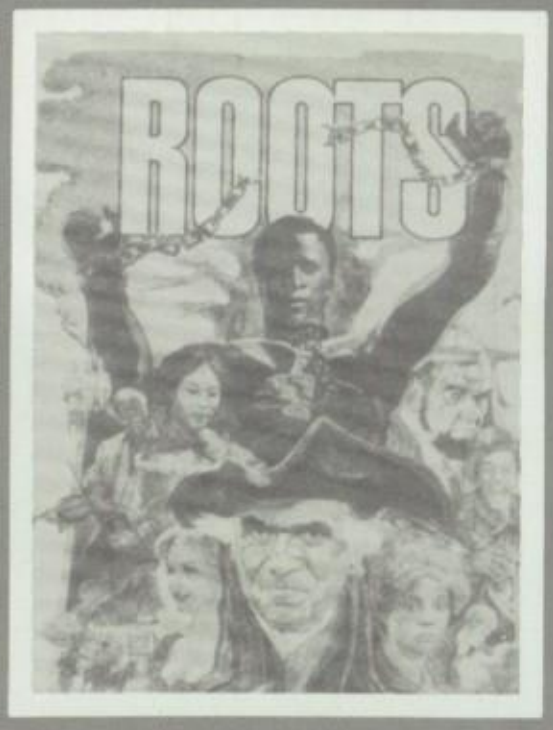
TIME CAPSULE 1976-77



Many of the top news stories of 1976-77 were political: the daring raid on Entebbe by Israeli commandoes in July freed the Israeli prisoners who had been kidnapped by terrorists and later inspired two TV movie accounts of the true-life adventure . . . a mysterious "Legionnaire's Disease" killed 21 people at a convention in Philadelphia . . . a campaign to vaccinate all Americans against the 'swine flu' became a political issue and was shelved when a series of side effects included paralysis . . . the battle between Gerald Ford and Ronald Reagan for the Republican nomination was the most interesting convention story. It was followed by a close race for President between incumbent Gerald Ford and a peanut farmer from Plains, Georgia named Jimmy Carter, who swept his way through the Democratic primaries and into the White House . . . a highlight of the campaign had been a debate between Ford and Carter at the Palace of Fine Arts in San Francisco . . . The first Viking Mars Probe reached Mars and, miraculously, "live" film of the "red desert" of Mars appeared on our television sets!

. . . even the Montreal Olympics carried political overtones as several countries withdrew from competition in protest of athletes who had participated in athletic events in South Africa . . . capital punishment became a hotly contested issue when convicted murderer Gary Gilmore demanded his "right" to be executed for his crime and thereby set off a series of appeals by the American Civil Liberties Union in protest of capital punishment . . . Gilmore was executed by a firing squad in January . . . The death of Chairman Mao in the People's Rebublic of China caused political upheaval, and marked the end of a significant era in world history . . . "All the President's Men," the movie version of the Watergate investigation, proved to be gripping and suspenseful, although most of us thought we had tired of the story . . . in Aspen, Colorado, singer Claudine Longet went on trial for manslaughter in the mysterious death of skier Spider Sabich . . . comedian Freddie Prinze, the 22 year old star of "Chico and the Man," stunned his fans and the world of entertainment by committing suicide in January . . . in contrast, Cal's All-American quarterback Joe Roth succumbed to cancer in February, following a courageous three year battle against the disease. He had been a top contender for the Heisman Trophy, but his courage and human dignity were even greater sources of inspiration . . . in the first week of February an estimated 100 million Americans watched the TV movie "ROOTS" on eight consecutive nights and became engrossed in the story of Kunta Kinte and his American descendants . . . Perhaps the major story of 1976-77 was the weather: the eastern portion of the U.S. suffered through a long, bitter winter of endless blizzards and sub-zero temperatures, while the western states (particularly California) suffered through a year of drought and crop failure . . . all of us were conscious of a severe water shortage and water rationing and energy conservation became practical necessities.

SKIERS DO IT IN THE SNOW

The Ski Club, with Mr. Andrich advising, was eighty members strong and by far the most popular club in the school. This year's members went to Sierra Ski Ranch on February 5 and Kirkwood Ski Resort on February 6. Fund raising events were also planned to help in their annual goal to reach the snow-covered mountains. Their patience was rewarded by the first snowfall during the final week of 1976.

Council welcomes the class of '80

"The leaders of tomorrow are in the Executive Councils of today" was the cry of this year's Executive Council.

Although seven out of the sixteen council members were appointed, this was one of the finest councils San Lorenzo has ever seen.

Led by Student Body President Roberta White, the council set goals and worked to achieve them.

Campus improvement was one of the biggest goals this year. Believing that you don't have to improve the exterior portion of the campus to improve the school, the council set out to improve the students' feeling about their school.

These council members were surely Rebels with a cause.

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

Representative Assembly, better known as R.A., was a group of concerned students elected by their third period class members to attend the R.A. meetings and report back to class. The representatives voiced their classmates' opinions on the functions and issues of the school.

John Ott was the R.A. Chairman, the Vice-Chairman was Paul Petros, Sergeant-at-Arms was Keith Romick, and Secretary was Nevenka Pejovich.

Mr. Griffin worked very closely with R.A. in fulfilling the students' needs. Some of the items R.A. discussed included campus improvement and the use of student body money for the purchase of G.I.S. sports equipment.

ACADEMIC SENATE

With Mike Spears as chairperson, Academic Senate was a group of students from the academic classes such as history, math, and English. The Senate thinks of ideas for changing, dropping or adding classes. These ideas are thought up by the Academic Senate and various concerned students. The Academic chairperson is elected each year at the school convention. The chairperson then appoints the Senate by each academic area and they represent the views of the students to the teachers of their areas.

The 1976-77 REBEL RECORD staff did a fine job of presenting the news of San Lorenzo High to the student body. Editor-in-chief was Jeff Montgomery, while page one editors were Brad Crua (2nd year) and Chris Bledsoe (1st year). Scott Fraser (2nd year) and Daryl Myers (1st year) teamed up as page two editors. Rick Seaver (2nd year) was page three editor. Mike Ozenghar (1st year) and Mike Spears (1st year) combined as sports editors. Joyce Combs (2nd year) headed up public relations and Cathy Adas (2nd year) was ad manager.

Among the many talents in orchestra are senior flautist Cindy Barron and senior clarinetist Arlen Johnson. The students in orchestra and band practiced diligently and received notice for their cultural contributions.

CAREER

CAREER EXPLORATION

R.O.P. is a Regional Occupational Program for Junior and Senior students who are interested in specific vocational training. Practical job experience is offered in many careers which students might like to pursue in their futures. R.O.P. is a great course for students who plan on going to college, as well as those who seek to develop immediate job skills. Often R.O.P. students are able to get jobs more easily because of their practical R.O.P. experience.

Some of the programs which have been taken by students from San Lorenzo are Allied Health, Dental Assistance, Graphics, Secretarial Practice, Auto Mechanics, Data Processing, Retail Merchandising and Industrial Drafting. Participants not only learn a specific career, but also learn to work with many different people.

LEADERSHIP COMES ALIVE!

Mike, wake up!

The Executive Council went on their annual Winter Retreat. They stayed at a cabin in Oakhurst, California, which was not far from Yosemite.

On the second day after arrival the council, accompanied by two class presidents and a number of teachers, climbed into their cars and took off to frolic in the snow.

In the three days of quiet solitude the council ate, played in the snow, listened to music, laughed an incredible amount, took enlightening midnight walks, and held meetings. The topics discussed included goals they made in September, the smoking area, and Rebello. The retreat was very enjoyable.

Hey, all you Rebel fans!

Having a Freshman cheerleading squad was a new experience for San Lorenzo High. This is the first time we have ever had Freshman cheerleaders. The girls cheered for our Frosh-Soph. football and basketball teams. Many hours each day were spent teaching about 25 Junior High girls. When try-outs came, only 4 girls were chosen: Kim Taylor (head), Judy Bettencourt, Gina Paralari, and Chris Santos.

The girls joined the J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders in their practices during the summer. They participated in many spirit rallies and competitions.

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders, headed by Liz Johnson, were full of spirit and might during the 1976-77 season. They kept the spirit of the J.V. football and basketball teams fired up. Before each game they gave the players little surprises and "good luck" treats.

The girls helped in the preparation for OMEGA, and led crowd cheers. They also competed in different school competitions.

They kept up the enthusiasm of the crowds while having an enjoyable season.

Our Varsity cheerleaders, headed by Eliza Rodrigues, raised our school spirit, and over-all game attendance improved during the season. 1977 proved to be a memorable year and a great opportunity for the girls.

During the basketball season at halftime they entertained the spectators with their flashlight and competition routines.

NEW COACHES BRING NEW BEGINNING TO FOOTBALL REBS

The Blue Max and hated Red Barons brought a new look to San Lorenzo varsity football. Dick Valois took over the reins of head coach and brought with him new coaches and new ideas. Other coaches besides Mr. Valois were Mr. Lane, defensive back coach, Mr. Madrigal, offensive line coach, and Mr. Hoffmann, who coached the defensive linemen. Ideas that Coach Valois brought with him besides names for the offensive and defensive teams included stickers that the players received for outstanding plays at the meeting on the Monday following each game. The players also wore new uniforms that consisted of maroon helmets and jerseys and gold pants with maroon stripes. Mr. Valois also had an office made for the coaches, which was the place where they met every day before and after practice. Mr. Valois' influence brought a new beginning to the San Lorenzo football program.

The Varsity opened their season with an impressive 24-0 victory over Newark in which the Blue Max and Red Barons performed brilliantly. Benji Maldonado started the season by running the opening kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown.

The Rebels finished league play with a 2 win, 5 loss record and a 3 win, 6 loss record on the season. Outstanding players on the Blue Max were quarterbacks Paul Petros and Kent Poetue, offensive linemen Danny Romero and Greg Perretti and fullback Gary Garcia. Rounding out the Blue Max explosiveness were three of the league's top receivers: Brian Coelho, Ken Curtis and Benji Maldonado.

The Red Barons were described by many opposing coaches as the hardest hitting team in the league. Key personnel in molding the Baron unit were Danny Vickers, Sammy Saito, Miguel Bynum, Lewis Hazzard, Brian Gardiner and Willie Hamm. Starring in the defensive backfield were fleet-footed Randy Morales, hard-hitting Gil Arce and Fred Peters.

Finishing first in "stickers" was Red Baron Sam Saito, who received twelve Baron stickers and Blue Max awards. Finishing a close second were Paul Petros, Danny Vickers and Miguel Bynum.

The Rebels placed only one member on the first team All League. It was offensive tackle Greg Perretti. Danny Vickers, Miguel Bynum, Randy Morales and Brian Gardiner all made the second team All-League defensive team. Wide receivers Brian Coelho and Benji Maldonado made the second team All-League offensive team. Willie Hamm, Paul Petros and Kent Portue received Honorable Mention.

J.V. FOOTBALL

The 1976 JV football team finished the season as one of the best JV teams in San Lorenzo history. First year coaches Victor Gordon and San Lorenzo alumnus John Kawahara led their team to a 5 win, 4 loss record.

Leading the offense were fullback Bob Weiman, halfback Rod Bechere, quarterback Scott Burns, and wide receiver Joe Espina. Tackle Terry Cisco anchored the offensive line. Showing outstanding ability on defense were linebacker and defensive guard Bob Weiman, linebackers Sal Padilla and Ted Riche and defensive back Jeff Walden.

Rod Bechere received the award as the best offensive player; Sal Padilla earned the defensive player award; and the coaches named Bob Weiman the All-Purpose JV Player of 1976.

This year's JV team used an explosive offense and a tough, hard-hitting defense to turn in a very successful season.

FROSH DEVELOP BASIC SKILLS

Frosh football was a learning year and the most difficult. Freshmen players learned the basic elements of tackling, blocking and self-discipline, which they needed to become quality athletes.

Many people left the game before fifth quarter even started, although fifth quarter was a very important part of Frosh. It gave every player an opportunity to play, unlike JV and Varsity. Many standout Varsity players have played in fifth quarter during their frosh year.

Coach Jerry Dore brought his Varsity experience down to frosh level. Together, he and assistant Coach Doug McNalley stressed that a successful frosh team is a team that works hard and consistently.

Troy Baggie led the offense with good, hard rushing, and Coach McNalley stated that Dominic Chelucci, Brad Chiaverini, and Ken Portue anchored a good sound defense.

The Varsity Cross Country team was one of the smallest in the league with only seven runners. Carl Nielson was the team's most outstanding runner; other strong runners were Rich Tomlinson, Willie King and Alan Nielson.

The team's long hours of training received a new lift when Ted Quintana, an ex-San Lorenzo Cross Country star, helped each team member to improve his performance by giving him special assistance each afternoon. Quintana ran with the team and gave the members the advantage of his experience as a Cross Country runner.

The Cross Country's record of three wins was encouraging and should give the five returning runners something to shoot for in terms of developing a strong team next year.

REBELS START SLOWLY, COME BACK STRONGLY

The Varsity ended the preseason with a dismal 3-8 record. They attended two tournaments: the Pleasant Valley Holiday Tournament in Chico, where they lost the consolation game to Samuel Ayer, and the West Valley Christmas Tournament, in which the Rebels finished fourth among sixteen teams. Phil Ybarra was named to the All-Tourney team at both tournaments. Along with Ybarra, Steve Martin and Ken Curtis also turned in outstanding and consistent performances.

In league play the Rebels finished the first half with a 4-4 record. After losing the first two games to Marina and Tennyson quintets, the Rebs went on a tear and won four of their next five games——beating Arroyo, Canyon, Castro Valley and Sunset, while succumbing to Hayward. In the last game of the first half the Rebels missed a chance to knock off undefeated Mt. Eden. The Rebels put on a superb performance, although they lost 40-39 as a last-second shot failed to fall through. Ken Curtis, Steve Martin and Phil Ybarra continued to pace the Rebel five.

REBS TIE FOR SECOND

After losing its opening game in the second round, the Rebel squad got hot and won the last seven games, including wins over Hayward and Mt. Eden squads. The Rebels finished in second place in the HAAL with an 11-5 record and a berth in the league playoffs. One reason for the hot streak was the play of guard Ken Curtis, forward Phil Ybarra and center Steve Martin. They all played major roles during the second half and forward Robert Vasquez and guard Tom Arce also made large contributions. Sadly, the Rebs were eliminated from the playoffs by Hayward by ONE POINT in overtime.

Phil Ybarra was one of the league's top scorers and was in the top five for South County scoring most of the season. On the year, the Rebels finished with a 14-13 overall record. Ken Curtis, Steve Martin and Phil Ybarra were Rebel candidates for All-League.

JU BASKETBALL

Led by Victor Kralj, Dennis Scott and Steve Hayes, the San Lorenzo Junior Varsity basketball team proved to be tough for opposing HAAL teams. Coach Dave Rhodes' players used an aggressive style of play to make their games close and exciting. Although having a poor record, it didn't represent the talent on the team.

Since there will not be any Varsity Players returning next year, the players from the Junior Varsity will be counted on heavily next year.

Leading the way for the Frosh-Soph were guards Pat Kennedy and Earl Curtis. Brad Pesicka, Steve Rhodes and Dominic Chelucci also showed promise for SLz in future years.

Rebel wrestling is one of the more successful sports at San Lorenzo, Each year San Lorenzo had placed in the top three, but had never reached number one. In 1977, Coach Pew's championship did not elude him or his talented team. The Rebs were undefeated in league meets, even though one of the younger teams with only three seniors: Phil Bush, Greg Hunter and Gil Gauthier.

Turning out good wrestlers is a San Lorenzo tradition. 1977 definitely was no exception. Rebs were strong in each weight class, but devastating in the lower weights, which included three undefeated wrestlers: Greg Hunter, Kyle Troche and Benji Maldonado. All three grapplers placed first in the league tournament.

San Lorenzo "tore up" in the league tournament. Rebs had Matt Anaya, Bob Dohman, Gil Gauthier, Frank Florez, Greg Hunter, Tim McMillen, Ben Maldonado, Kyle Troche, and Price Troche placing in the top three in their weight divisions, which qualified them to go to the Northern California tournament.

Coach Neil Pew and Assistant Coach Isaac Rodrigues wouldn't settle for second best and produced a group of winning wrestlers for San Lorenzo.

The 1976-77 varsity soccer team finished a well played season. The team did very well even though its defense was made up mostly of first year players. Fullback Rick Seaver did an outstanding job in his first attempt at soccer. Returning varsity players Kulwant Singh, Gary Olson, and Joe Cruz, headed up the offensive drive. Both foreign exchange students, Johan Bill (Sweden) and Kees Biekart (Holland), added their soccer techniques and knowledge to the team. Coach Thompson and Coach Goard look forward to next year's varsity squad.

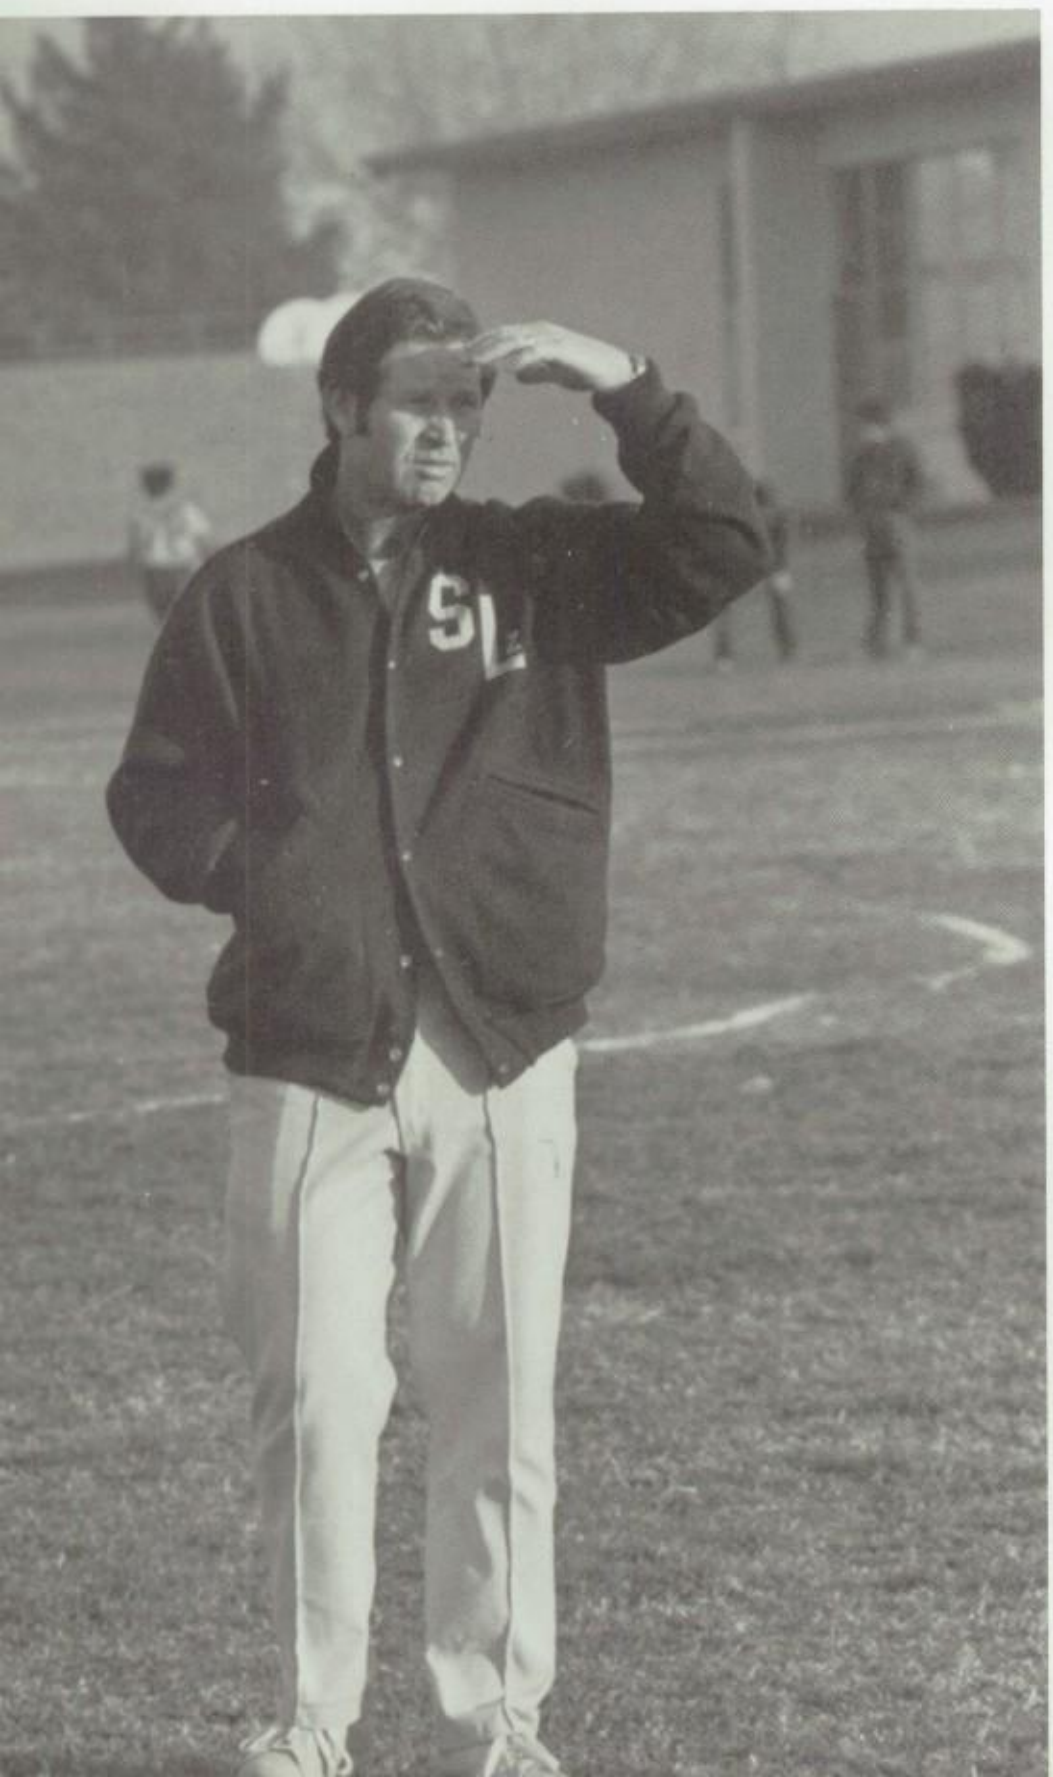
In the past twelve years Coach Howie Thompson led San Lorenzo's Varsity baseball team to five HAAL Championships, including three out of the last four and a berth in last year's North Coast playoffs. Mr. Thompson has been coaching and teaching at San Lorenzo for thirteen years. Besides coaching baseball, he also coaches soccer and led last year's Varsity to a second place finish. He has continued to serve as advisor of Block SL and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.



FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

F.C.A. is an acronym for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. This group of San Lorenzo students, advised by Howie Thompson, was concerned about the needs of the students on campus. F.C.A. met every Wednesday during lunch. They participated in Bible studies and prayer. F.C.A has always been a very close group of individuals and they hope to have more members in the years to come.

Baseball Begins A New Regime

The Rebel baseball team of 76-77 worked hard to regain the championship form of last season. New additions to the varsity team were Coach Pat Faeth and Jim Kuhns, who was assistant coach. Third baseman Gil Arce and rightfielder Paul Petros provided the power at the bat for the varsity team. Ricky Truax did an outstanding job as the only returning varsity pitcher. The team did well considering most of it was made up of juniors and sophomores who had little varsity experience.

J.U. BASEBALL

The JV baseball team worked for another successful season under the direction of Coach Tom Hoffman. As freshmen in 1976 they finished undefeated and won the league title. In 1977 they worked toward a repeat performance.

Pitcher Doug Parkins, outfielder Brent Allenbach, shortstop Sal Perez and catcher Bob Weiman all played standout baseball for the JV squad.

FROSH BASEBALL . . .

Frosh baseball launched a new beginning for Rebel horsehiders. Under the guidance of rookie coach George Konstantino, the eager Frosh-Soph players spent hours practicing the fundamentals of good baseball. Outfielders Bob Gunby, Dave Seaver and Reggie Wiley, catcher Dave Stevens, and infielders Kent Portue, Troy Baggie and Rick Ortega paced the frosh team.

REBELS MAKE A SPLASH . . .

Many strong returning swimmers made the SLz swim team a good one. Practicing at Chabot, the team was led by Coach Steve Guthrie, who gave the men strength in words and always told them the important thing was to better a time.

Carl Perry joined returning divers Dean Warkentin and Richard Ilac. Scott Burns and Jim Chapin led the team as strong distance swimmers. The middle distance men were Norm Testerman, Ken Brawley, Ed Brown, Wayne O'Krakel, and Eric Appleby.Appleby, who went all the way to North Coast in 1976, again produced a standout year.

TENNIS TRIUMPHS!

The 1976-77 San Lorenzo tennis team completed another fine season. Senior George Robinson, who is the number one singles player, overcame his opponents very effectively. Alex Ramirez and Steve Hayes also had fine seasons. The one doubles team consisted of Scott Fraser and John Ott, who were tough opponents for the other teams. For these reasons, Coach Mike Fuhrig was very pleased with the team's effort.

The track team was made up of different people of all shapes and sizes-from fast, slender people to huge, strong people; from strong, long distance runners to quick sprinters; from people who jump high to people who jump long. They all combined to make the San Lorenzo track team.

Coaches played a big part. They coached people in their events and got them organized. Coaches Aaron Carter, Roy Parker and Angelo Madrigal helped the 1977 track team with their success.

Some of the outstanding track personnel included Randy Morales, running a tough race in the 440; Melanie Moore, an outstanding sprinter; Carl Nielson, running strong in the 2 mile run; Willie Hamm, who put great strrength into the discus throw; Jim Atkins, with great form and distance in the shotput; Nick Morrison, who got high in the pole vault; and Ken Curtis, who used his speed and spring for the long jump.

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS 1976-77

1977 was the year of the Raiders! The mighty Oakland Raiders finally won the big one! They finished the season with a 13-1 record, with their only loss at the hands of a young and talented New England Patriot team. In the AFC playoffs they defeated New England in a tough ball game and then rolled over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the second round. The Raiders annihilated the Minnesota Vikings in the Super Bowl, 32-14. Fred Biletnikoff was the MVP of the Super Bowl. Leading the Raiders were Ken Stabler, Dave Caspar, Clarence Davis, Mark Van Eeghan and the offensive line. Quarterback Bert Jones of Baltimore and running back Chuck Foreman of Minnesota won the NFL MVP awards in their respective leagues . . . Tony Dorsett was the standout college player and winner of the Heisman Trophy.

In the Summer Olympics at Montreal the world was in awe of the gymnastic talents of Romania's 14 year old star, Nadia Comaneci. The power and grace of her performances won six perfect scores . . . Bruce Jenner of the US set a world record in the Decathlon . . . East Germany's women's team dominated their Olympic events . . . American swimmers John Naber and Shirley Babashoff also did well in the swimming events . . . The biggest surprise of all was the US boxing team, which won five gold medals, led by Howard Davis and Sugar Ray Leonard.

The awesome Cincinnati Reds dominated major league baseball by smashing the Phillies in the playoffs and humiliating the Yankees in the World Series. Johnny Bench, Pete Rose, Ken Griffey and Joe Morgan played brilliantly to spark the "Big Red Machine." Bench was named the MVP of the series; and, for the second consecutive year, second baseman Joe Morgan of the Reds (60 SB, 27 HR, 111 RBI, .320) was the MVP in the National League. The American League's MVP was Yankee catcher Thurman Munson . . . Detroit's "flaky" and talented rookie pitcher Mark "The Bird" Fidrych was baseball's standout personality and a 19 game winner in his first season. Fidrych captured the imagination of all baseball fans with his eccentric brilliance and drew huge crowds throughout the country . . . Bill Madlock of the Cubs and George Brett of KC captured the batting titles, and the Giants' John Montefusco pitched a no-hitter.

In basketball Boston defeated the Cinderella Phoenix Suns in the 7th game of the Championship Series. The power of the Celtics' Charlie Scott, Dave Cowens, John Havlichek and JoJo White proved too much for the Suns' Alvin Adams and Paul Westphal . . . The Lakers' Kareem-Abdul Jabbar was the MVP of the NBA . . . In 1977 Dave Cowens of the Celtics took a "leave of absence" for the first half of the season and Boston struggled to win a place in the '77 playoffs . . . The Denver Nuggets joined the NBA and their powerhouse team was led by David Thompson, Dan Issel and Bobby Jones . . . In college ball the USF Dons again emerged as the No. 1 team in the college ranks, paced by Bill Cartwright, Winford Boynes and James Hardy.

Many top stars of baseball became free agents in October and later signed million dollar, multi-year contracts with new teams. the A's lost Joe Rudi, Rollie Fingers, Sal Bando, Campy Campaneris, Gene Tenace and Don Baylor . . . The wealthy Yankees picked up Don Gullett and Reggie Jackson to join previously acquired Catfish Hunter, Mickey Rivers, Ed Figueroa and Ken Holtzman . . . The Giants lost Garry Mathews, but gained Bill Madlock in a trade . . . Joe Rudi, Bobby Grich and Don Baylor joined the California Angels.

Mark Fidrych smoothes the mound.

SWINGING SUCCESS

The San Lorenzo golf team had an excellent season under the direction of coach John Andrich. This year's team was quite experienced with six golfers returning from last year's squad. Zac Crouse led the team at the number one position, while juniors, Charlie West, Dave Morain and Ken Haines consistently shot low scores. Seniors Craig Bruns and Brian McLellan also turned in excellent rounds throughout the season. The golf team is young and is looking forward to another excellent season next year. Mike Brady in his first year out for golf turned in many clutch scores to win matches.

TENNIS REBELETTES FINISH THIRD

The GIS tennis team enjoyed an extremely good season.

The singles players—Regina Brooks, Bonnie Serrano, Judy Bullington and Cathy Kroetch—defeated nearly all their opponents.

The outstanding doubles team of Lorraine Yamashita and Terri Fortine produced an excellent record of six victories in eight matches.

GIS tennis coach Barbara Lockwood was highly satisfied with her team's 6-2 record, giving the Rebelettes a third place position in league play.

GIS swim season started on October 5 with a San Lorenzo victory over Hayward. The team, coached by Miss Arta Williams and Miss Lee Akins, went on to win four of their six league meets. The meets were all held on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The only two teams that defeated San Lorenzo were Castro Valley and Mt. Eden, each of whom was undefeated until Castro Valley defeated the Monarchs.

The HAAL League Meet at Mt. Eden determined which swimmers would go to the North Coast swim meet. Though none of our girls made it to North Coast, the team came in third overall.

Outstanding among returning varsity SLz swimmers were Denise Bigelow, Anna Brouns, Patti Lombardi, Teresa Lombardi and Janice Souza. It would be almost impossible to name all the other outstanding swimmers, but each one did her part to lead the team on to a GREAT SEASON!!

G.I.S. BASKETBALL SOARS TO NEW HEIGHTS

G.I.S. Basketball jumped high in 1977. The varsity team was small, but mighty! Janet Roh, who was also one of the tallest girls on the team, was the only freshman to break into the starting lineup. The entire lineup will return for the 1977-78 G.I.S. Basketball season except for senior Anna Brouns.

The Junior Varsity squad was hard-working and spirited in preparation for next year.

Miss Akins, a P.E. teacher at Edendale Junior High, completed her first year as coach of women's basketball at San Lorenzo.

Linda Cortez drives toward the basket.

Everyone on the team contributed her share of scoring, but high scorer was Bonnie Serrano. Volleyball coach Miss Frye and her team are looking forward to clinching the league title next year.

The Junior Varsity team also did very well with a duplicate 5-2 record. High scorer on the Junior Varsity team was Sandy Baker.

"We must adjust to changing times and still hold to unchanging principles."

This inauguration ceremony marks a new beginning, a new dedication within our government, and a new spirit among us all. A president may sense and proclaim that new spirit, but only a people can provide it.

. . . I have no new dream to set forth today, but rather urge a fresh faith in the old dream. . . . The American dream endures. We must once again have full faith in our country--and in one another.

Washington, D.C.—January 20, 1977
